

To who It may concern,

My Partner is a proud 20 year member of the Rebel MC Tasmania (motorcycle club) not gang its he's life Riding and being with he's mates he wears he's colours with pride Just like the norms who where there footy jumpers etc. He doesn't try and intimate people .. Our town where we ;live sees him as a person not a criminal bikie he is well mannered,polite and doe's not decimate against any one he will say hello do anyone whether of there race colour or what they wear. There are good and bad in every club including the police force. These laws are defiantly Decimation plain and simple . Banding there colours in public will not help the ice epidemic as bikies are against ice you sell or use your out. Australia is becoming a Nazi regime, Don't let this happen !! We are Australian
