

To whom it may concern. i believe that there are enough laws in place.not only in Tasmania. but all around Australia to deal with any unlawful activities that members of motorcycling clubs. get involved with. i personally have worked all around Australia on mining sites & construction sites & have met several members of all clubs .who r decent & law abiding citizens. yes there have been bad apples amongst. but usually make there own bed & get dealt with accordingly. look over time the amount of corruption some of our federal police state police & sporting people. as well as white collar workers have been involved in. the list goes on. i am opposed to the laws that r proposed for outlaw motorcycle clubs.thanking you Ian Baxter.
