

To: Strategy Support (DPFEM) <strategy.support@dpfem.tas.gov.au>

Subject: Biker gang reforms

Hi,

I have a suggestion to enforce motor cycle riders to wear 50% hi visibilty clothing. This would not only make motorcyclists more visible but would change the "civil right" to wear clothing to an OH&S issue taking away the argument. Decible testing exhaust noise would be another restriction.

Just a few ideas

Chris Ranson