

Family Violence Incidents committed by sworn officers of Tasmania Police

Date	Family Violence Incidents	Charges	Professional Standards Action
2017	5 x matters – 5 x officers (2 x not finalised, 2 x not sustained, 1 x unfounded)	1 x breach of Police Family Violence Order (PFVO) – prosecution completed (Complaint proven). 1 x Destroy property – prosecution completed (Convicted and Fined).	2 x Code of Conduct investigations are yet to be determined. 1 x officer suspended 2017 (not suspended solely due to FV matters).
2018	3 x matters – 3 x officers (1 x not finalised, 2 x no allegation of misconduct)	3 x Use carriage service to menace or harass – prosecution completed (Complaint proven).	1 x Code of Conduct investigation yet to be determined. 1 x officer suspended 2017 (not suspended solely due to FV matters).
2019 (to 31/7/2019)	2 x matters – 2 x officers (2 x not finalised)	1 X Officer charged with 2 x counts of breaching a PFVO – prosecution commenced, but not completed.	2 x officers made non-operational due to the issuing of PFVO'S.

In relation to your application, I can advise that:

- all reported incidents of family violence are investigated by Tasmania Police in line with current legislation;
- of the nine (10) family violence incidents investigated there are currently five (5) matters outstanding due to ongoing court proceedings which are yet to be finalised or the relevant officer being on leave.