

I disclose the following information in reference to the points outlined in your application:

1. A log of correspondence between Tasmania Police and German law enforcement relating to Tobias Pick.

In an effort to obtain the information requested I have searched all relevant Tasmania Police information systems and databases. Following comprehensive searches of these systems, no records relevant to point one of your request have been located.

2. Confirmation and documentation of whether transcripts of police interviews with Tobias Pick's girlfriend Kristina Jung were provided by Tasmania Police to the prosecution.

I can confirm that the transcripts of police interviews with Tobias Pick's girlfriend Kristina Jung were provided by Tasmania Police and formed part of the prosecution file.

3. Confirmation and documentation of whether the evidence or statements provided by Michael Kiddle were provided by Tasmania Police to the prosecution.

I can also confirm that the transcripts of police interviews with Michael Kiddle were provided by Tasmania Police and formed part of the prosecution file.

4. The forensic pathologist report/s concerning the death of Jingai Zhang.

I can advise that information relating to point four of your application has been located, however, the material you have requested is held by the Tasmanian Chief Coroner and forms part of a coronial investigation.

As the Office of the Coroner is an excluded body under the Act, any information in its possession, including that gathered or created to assist in a coronial investigation is not subject to disclosure under the Act.

Therefore, no information relevant to point four of your application has been disclosed.

5. Video recordings and written transcripts of all police interviews conducted with Tobias Pick.

I can confirm that I have applied exemption 36 in full, and therefore, I do not disclose any information in relation to point five of your request.
