

Darren Hine service history

Date	Transfer/appointment
13/02/1980	Joined as a cadet
26/11/1981	Appointed as Probationary Constable
30/11/1981	Transfer to Burnie Uniform
26/11/1982	Confirmation as Constable
08/08/1983	Transfer to Traffic Control - Burnie
16/08/1985	Promotion to 1/C Constable
01/09/1986	Transfer to Criminal Investigation Branch - Launceston
03/12/1990	Promotion to Senior Constable
21/01/1993	Promotion to Sergeant
10/02/1993	Transfer to Hobart Division
10/04/1995	Transfer to Physical Surveillance Unit
11/08/1997	Promotion to Inspector
15/09/1997	Transfer to Project Manager - Project Baton, Business Projects Services
28/08/2000	Promotion to Superintendent (later became Commander) Executive Support
28/01/2002	Transfer to Operations Support
21/8/2002	Appointment to Assistant Commissioner Planning and Development
15/01/2007	Transfer to Assistant Commissioner Crime and Operations
14/08/2008	Appointment to Deputy Commissioner of Police and Deputy Secretary
14/08/2008	Appointment as Acting Commissioner
11/10/2010	Appointment to Commissioner of Police and Secretary of the Department of Police and Emergency Management (later changed to Police, Fire and Emergency Management)
10/10/2022	Retired

Commissioner Darren Hine AO PSM APM

BIOGRAPHY

Darren Hine was appointed Commissioner of Police and Secretary of the Department of Police, Fire and Emergency Management in October 2010.

After joining Tasmania Police as a 17-year-old cadet in 1980, he completed uniform and traffic control duties in regional and metropolitan Tasmania after graduating from the Tasmania Police Academy.

In 2015, Commissioner Hine was appointed by the Prime Minister to the Australian Government's Advisory Panel to Reduce Violence against Women and has a personal commitment to tackling violence against women and their children.

He served as Chair of the Australian and New Zealand Policing Advisory Agency (ANZPAA) for 7 years, and Chair of the National Crime Statistics Board of Management (NCSU) for 13 years.

Commissioner Hine was awarded the National Medal in 1995, the Commissioner's Medal in 1999, the Australian Police Medal in 2002 and the National Police Service Medal in 2012.

In 2020, Commissioner Hine was inducted as an Officer of the Order of Australia for distinguished service to law enforcement, and to the community.

In 2022, Commissioner Hine was awarded the Public Service Medal for his extraordinary contribution to keeping Tasmanians safe from the threat of COVID-19 through exemplary leadership and management of Tasmania's response to the pandemic.

Commissioner Hine is committed to supporting a healthy and resilient workforce, building frontline capability, enhancing trust and strengthening community relationships and capitalising on interoperable emergency services.

A keen runner, Darren has completed five marathons and numerous fun runs.

Commissioner Darren Hine AO, APM

BIOGRAPHY

Darren Hine was appointed Commissioner of Police and Secretary of the Department of Police, Fire and Emergency Management in October 2010.

After joining Tasmania Police as a 17-year-old cadet in 1980, he completed uniform and traffic control duties in regional and metropolitan Tasmania after graduating from the Tasmania Police Academy.

In 2015, Commissioner Hine was appointed by the Prime Minister to the Australian Government's Advisory Panel to Reduce Violence against Women and has a personal commitment to tackling violence against women and their children.

He served as Chair of the Australian and New Zealand Policing Advisory Agency (ANZPAA) for 7 years, and Chair of the National Crime Statistics Board of Management (NCSU) for 13 years.

Commissioner Hine was awarded the National Medal in 1995, the Commissioner's Medal in 1999, the Australian Police Medal in 2002 and the National Police Service Medal in 2012.

In 2020, Commissioner Hine was inducted as an Officer of the Order of Australia for distinguished service to law enforcement, and to the community.

Commissioner Hine is committed to supporting a healthy and resilient workforce, building frontline capability, enhancing trust and strengthening community relationships and capitalising on interoperable emergency services.

A keen runner, Darren has completed five marathons and numerous fun runs.

Commissioner Darren Hine APM

BIOGRAPHY

Darren Hine was appointed Commissioner of Police and Secretary of the Department of Police, Fire and Emergency Management in October 2010.

After joining Tasmania Police as a 17-year-old cadet in 1980, he completed uniform and traffic control duties in regional and metropolitan Tasmania after graduating from the Tasmania Police Academy. Following a six-year posting with Launceston CIB as a Detective Senior Constable he was promoted to Sergeant in 1993 and to the rank of Inspector in 1997.

Promoted to Commander in 2000, he was responsible for Executive Support before being transferred to Operations Support. In 2002, he was appointed Assistant Commissioner and Deputy Commissioner of Police in 2008.

In 2015, Commissioner Hine was appointed by the Prime Minister to the Australian Government's Advisory Panel to Reduce Violence against Women and as a White Ribbon Ambassador, has a personal commitment to tackling violence against women and their children. He is also Chair of the Australian and New Zealand Policing Advisory Agency (ANZPAA) and the National Crime Statistics Board of Management (NCSU).

Commissioner Hine was awarded the National Medal in 1995, the Commissioner's Medal in 1999, the Australian Police Medal in 2002 and the National Police Service Medal in 2012.

A keen runner, Darren has completed five marathons and many fun runs.

BIOGRAPHY

Commissioner Darren Hine, Tasmania Police

---

Commissioner Hine joined Tasmania Police as a cadet in 1980. Upon graduation he conducted uniform and traffic control duties, followed by a six-year posting with Launceston CIB as a Detective Senior Constable. Mr Hine was promoted to Sergeant in 1993 and to the rank of Inspector in 1997 when he worked in Business Projects Services. He was appointed Commander in 2000 when he headed Executive Support and Operations Support. In 2002, Mr Hine was appointed Assistant Commissioner and Deputy Commissioner of Police in 2008. He was awarded the National Medal in 1995, the Commissioner's Medal in 1999, the Australian Police Medal in 2002 and the National Police Service Medal in 2012. Mr Hine was appointed Commissioner of Police in October 2010.